Churah valley to host adventure tourism soon

Chamba, January 7, 2011.

With a view to explore adventurous activities in the picturesque Churah valley of Chamba district, Tourism and Civil Aviation department will organize a two-week-long trekking guide and mountain rescue training camp for local youth in the first week of March. A number of 15 trainees would undergo this training course with a base camp at Tissa.

Giving this information here at Chamba today, assistant commissioner-cum- district tourism development officer, Kishori Lal said the camp envisaged to attract adventure- loving tourists from country and abroad and also to create opportunities of money earning at door-steps. Practical training would be imparted in alpine region of Devikothi, he added.
